Medical Advisory Committee nomination papers

(For pre-hospital emergency care practitioners)

Function of the Medical Advisory Committee

The primary function of MAC is to advise Council on clinical matters. This involves members having a keen interest in clinical practice with an ability to critically appraise issues presented for decision. MAC is a very productive committee involving activate participation between and at meetings.

Nomination
Name	PIN	Division on Register
Block capitals		Advanced Paramedic
Insert candidate's name, PIN and tick the division on the register for which the election applies.		Paramedic Emergency Medical Technician
стостот аррисот		Emergency Medical Technician
Candidate's consent: I agree to my name going forward for the Medical Advisory Committee member elections. I have read the rules of the election and agree to be bound by them. I understand that membership of the Medical Advisory Committee will involve meeting approximately once per month and I will endeavour to attend these meetings and actively participate in the deliberations. I also understand that no remuneration will be paid for MAC activities but that expenses will be paid. I attach a one A4 page biographical information sheet for the election.
Name PIN		Signature	_
Nominating Practitioners Name PIN Signature
Name	1 111	Oignature

Please note:

Incomplete or incorrect nomination papers will not be considered.